

“TWOgether” Exhibition Call For Entries

Show Dates: February 3 - 24, 2012

Opening Reception: Friday, February 10, 6-8pm

The reception will feature local pairings of drinks and desserts.

Eligibility:

Artists do not have to be CCArts members to participate.

Collaboration between two artists is strongly encouraged for this exhibition.

Entries:

Artists working in pairs or alone may submit one entry consisting of a pair of works in the media of their choice. Poetry or other written work; original, or published work used as inspiration, may be submitted as one part of the pair. Selections for the exhibition will be made depending on space available, and collaborative work will have preference.

Artwork must have been created within the last 2 years.

Identification tags with artist's name, artwork title, media/year and the price of the pair must be attached to the upper right hand corner of the back of the artworks or the bottom of sculptures.

Entries must be original artwork, done without the use of photographs taken by anyone other than the artist pair. Works must be framed and ready to hang (some appropriate canvas paintings may be unframed).

Works without proper hanging wire will not be accepted. Written work must also be framed.

Work previously exhibited at the Center for the Creative Arts is not eligible.

Submitted 3-dimensional work such as sculpture or jewelry must have it's own display/stand.

All entries must be for sale and a 30% commission will be retained by CCArts. No entries may be removed until the exhibition closes. CCArts is not responsible for any work left beyond pickup deadlines. Any piece that remains at CCArts 30 days after the close of exhibition becomes the property of CCArts. Works not accepted must be picked up prior to the opening of the exhibit by the dates below. All necessary registration paperwork will be made available at time of drop-off.

Entry Fee: A special fee structure is in place to encourage collaboration between artists.

A non-refundable entry fee of $16.00 per pair of artworks made in collaboration, OR

A non-refundable entry fee of $20.00 per pair of artworks by a single artist, in the form of cash or a check made payable to “CCArts” is required.
